PURPOSE: To equip medical personnel with the skills necessary to manage Psychiatric illnesses in patients presenting to their general physicians.

Target audience
Physicians, Nurses, Psychiatry Care Personnel

OBJECTIVES: Upon completion of this program participants would

1. Reiterate Professionalism in General Practice
2. Be able to diagnose and initially manage psychosis in medical illness
3. Be able to diagnose depression in general practice
4. Be able to diagnose psychosis in Obstetric and Gynecologic patients
5. Recognise abnormal behavior in children
6. Be able to diagnose anxiety disorders
7. Be able to know morbidity in Grenada
8. Provide counseling to patients

This activity has been planned and implemented in accordance with the Essential Areas and Policies of Continuing Medical Education through the joint sponsorship of Caribbean College of Family Physicians and St. George's University, and the Government of Grenada, Grenada, West Indies.

Caribbean College of Family Physicians designates this educational activity for a maximum of 5 credits of Category 1. Each Physician should claim only credit that he/she actually spent in the educational activity.

Method of Education
Lecture, A-V presentation, followed by questions and answers. Panel Discussion.

Planning Committee
Chamarthy Subbarao, BSc, MD, Chairman
Deborah-Ann Stephens-John, MD
Brenda Cooper-Williams, BSc

This CME activity is being offered as a community service.
8:15 Registration
2:10-2:20 Closing Remarks & Vote of Thanks
Deborah-Ann Stephens John, MD

2:20-2:30 Moderators
Narasimhan Prabhakar, MD
Frances McGill, RN, MD

8:30-8:45 Opening Remarks
George Mitchell, MD

9:00-9:30 Professionalism in General Practice
Davendranana Sharma, MD

9:30-10:00 Depression in Adults
George Mahy, MB,BS, DPM, MRC

10:00–10:30 Psychosis as a Manifestation of Medical Illness
Dolland Noel, MD

10:30 – 11:00 Psychosis in Obstetric and Gynecologic patients
Theresa Simon, MD

11:00-11:10 COFFEE/TEA BREAK

11:10-11:40 Abnormal Behavior in Children
Davendranana Sharma, MD

11:40-12:10 Anxiety Disorders
George Mahy, MB,BS, DPM, MRC

12:10-12:40 Community Oriented Counseling
Lorraine Steele, MA

12:40-1:20 LUNCH

1:20 – 1:40 Psychiatric Care in Grenada
Dorris KeensDouglas, MD
Evlyn Spencer, MD

1:40-2:10 Panel Discussion

The sponsors reserve the right to modify course content if necessary.

Registration: Deborah-Ann Stephens-John, MD
(473-443-2976)
Brenda Cooper-Williams, BSc
(473-444-4175, Ext. 3121)
St. George’s University School of Medicine

FACULTY

Davendranana Sharma, MD
Professor, Department of Behavior Science
Ross University, Roseau, Dominica

Deborah-Ann Stephens-John, MD
General Practitioner &
President, Grenada Medical Association

Dolland Noel, MD
Medical Consultant
Grenada General Hospital, Ministry of Health

Dorris KeensDouglas, MD
Evlyn Spencer, MD
Consultants, Mt. Gay Mental Hospital
Ministry of Health, Grenada

George Mahy, MB, BS, DPM, MRC
Consultant Psychiatrist
University of the West Indies
Cave Hill Campus, Barbados

George Mitchell, MD
Chief Medical Officer
Ministry of Health, Grenada

Lorraine Steele, MA
Psychotherapist
Psychological Services Centre
St. George’s University, Grenada

Narasimhan Prabhakar, MD
Professor, Clinical Skills Department
St. George’s University, Grenada

Frances McGill, RN, MD
Professor, Clinical Skills & Obstetrics-Gynecology
St. George’s University, Grenada

Theresa Simon, MD
Obstetrics/Gynecology Consultant
Grenada General Hospital, Ministry of Health